- Curriculum vitae with relevant trenchless technology experience and academic achievements (maximum 3 pages);
- Biography (maximum 300 words).

The award is intended to encourage and recognize the achievements of a young professional in the early stages of their career who has demonstrated a noteworthy commitment to excellence and innovation in his/her profession while working to promote the benefits of trenchless technology. Current NASTT members under the age of 36, during the year of presentation, are eligible for consideration. Candidates must have been members of NASTT for a minimum of 24 months.

This annual award is given in the memory of the late Trent Ralston who was a major contributor to NASTT and our educational programs. Trent was an industry leader and an inspiration to all that knew him.

Completed applications should be directed electronically to Michael Willmets, NASTT Executive Director (mwillmets@nastt.org) and must be received by no later than midnight, February 10, 2012. The successful nominee must be present at the NASTT 2012 No-Dig Show in Nashville, TN to accept this award. The presentation will be made at the annual NASTT No-Dig Show Gala Awards Dinner on Tuesday, March 29, 2012. Complimentary registration to the 2012 No-Dig Show will be provided.
